

Interdisciplinary Undergraduate Conference:

Southern Accents

The 2023 Undergraduate Conference, sponsored by the School of Arts & Letters, will kick off on April 5th as part of The MGA Arts Festival: Reclaiming the Native South.

April 5

Reading and Book Signing with novelist Annette Saunooke Clapsaddle followed by an Opening Reception for the Undergraduate Conference in the Arts Complex Rehearsal Hall.

4 pm | Arts Complex Theatre | Macon Campus.

Art Exhibition (March 27 - April 6)

All Day | Peacock Gallery | Cochran Campus

April 6

Poetry Reading with Dr. Kevin Cantwell, Poet and Author

11 am | MGA Library | Macon Campus

Undergraduate Conference Student Panel Presentations

All Day | Cochran Campus

Undergraduate Conference Panel Discussion on Art

3:30 pm - 4:25 pm | Peacock Gallery | Cochran Campus

Women's Health Panel, moderated by Dr. Patrice Walker, president of Navicent

5:30 pm - 7:00 pm | Math Auditorium | Macon Campus

April 7

Undergraduate Conference Student Panel Presentations

All Day | SoAL | Macon Campus

Keynote Presentation: "Southern Foodways", Dr. David Davis followed by a luncheon in the SoAL lobby.

12:00 pm - 1:30 pm | Arts Complex Theater | Macon Campus

April 8

Undergraduate Conference Student Poster Session

All Day | SoAL | Macon Campus

April 10

Art Exhibition: Opening and Awards

6:00 pm | SoAL Lobby | Macon Campus