FLIGHT & ATC students & Business/Management/Logistics major students

- Grey and Black shirts with MGA logo purchased from the Campus Store and Eastman Bookstore.
- Brown, black, khaki, or grey pants (no jeans or gym pants)

Purple Thursdays

- Students may participate in Purple Thursdays; however, the dress code for shoes and pants still applies. Students may wear purple t-shirts that are with the school logo.

BADGES:

Everyone will be required to have a MGA badge. The badge may be worn either on a lanyard around the neck or worn with a badge clip. The badge is to be visible and above the belt line at all times.

The only exception to this rule is if the instructor and/or student is in the lab. In this case, the badge may be tucked inside of the uniform shirt or placed into the pants pocket until lab time is over.

The following applies to students:

OUTERWEAR (JACKETS):

In the event of cold weather – students may wear a black or gray jacket, but no hoodie. AMST students have a designated black coat. Students may wear a long sleeve shirt under top shirt as long as it is the same color (ex: black long sleeve under black short sleeve).

Shoes:

Toes must be covered. No thin straps, spike heels, chunky heels or platforms, rubber flip flops, tennis shoes (athletic shoes), or crocs.

Hair:

Neat and well-groomed

No hats or beanies

Jewelry:

May wear a conservative watch. No jewelry in the labs (applies to AMST department). No facial jewelry.

Pants:

Athletic wear is not allowed (this includes yoga pants and/or leggings worn as pants). Needs to be professional type pants, no denim (blue jeans). Belts worn must be either black or brown color.
