

MLK Day UNITY 2022

A Powerful Flame for Change

Mr. Harold Michael Harvey
Guest Speaker/Author

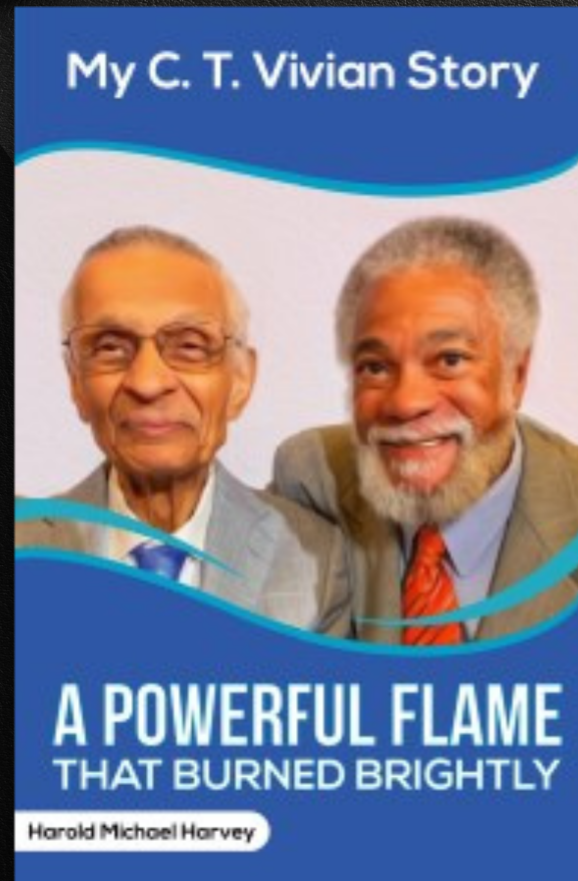

Virtual Book Discussion

Monday, January 24th
Noon- 1:00pm

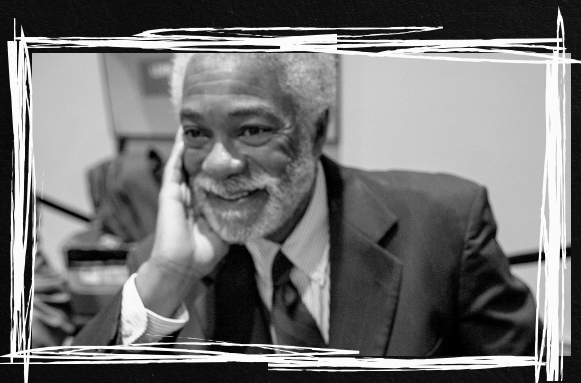

TEAMS

Faculty/Staff/Students

Join us for a Lunch and Learn as Mr. Harvey discusses his book about his friend and neighbor, the late Rev. C.T. Vivian, an early civil rights organizer and field general for the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Mr. Harold Michael Harvey

Award-winning journalist, political pundit, novelist, essayist, and publisher.

Native of Middle Georgia

Living Now 2020 Bronze Medal winner for his memoir Freaknik Lawyer: A Memoir on the Craft of Resistance. He is the author of a book on Negro Leagues Baseball, The Duke of 18th & Vine: Bob Kendrick Pitches Negro Leagues Baseball. He writes feature stories for BlackCollegeNines.com. Harvey is a member of the Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, the HBCU Pro Sports Media Association, and a member of the Legends Committee for the National College Baseball Hall of Fame.

OFFICE OF DIVERSITY, INCLUSION, & EQUITY