

Cranes And Slings Quiz

- 1. Only trained, qualified employees can operate and inspect cranes and slings.
 - a. True b. False

- 2. A crane's or sling's rated capacity is:
 - a. The type of floor it can stand on safely
 - b. The maximum load it can handle safely
 - c. The number of people it can hold safely

- 3. Sling ratings may also include the:
 - a. Temperatures or conditions they can handle
 - b. Amount of time they can be used
 - c. Number of times they can be used

- 4. Alloy steel chain slings are often used because they're:
 - a. Inexpensive
 - b. Lightweight and able to handle shock
 - c. Strong and able to handle heat

- 5. OSHA requires slings to be inspected daily before use.
 - a. True b. False

- 6. OSHA says defective crane hooks, broken ropes, and other defective or damaged parts can be repaired.
 - a. True b. False

- 7. One of the last things an operator does before lifting and moving a load is to make sure that:
 - a. Inspection reports have been filled out properly
 - b. No one is on or under the load or hooks or in its planned path
 - c. The electrical equipment is properly guarded

- 8. A crane operator may drag the loaded sling on the ground.
 - a. True b. False

- 9. Operators and signal persons alert other workers to crane movements with:
 - a. Shouted warnings
 - b. Printed signs
 - c. Hand signals

- 10. It's safe to walk under a crane load as long as it's not moving.
 - a. True b. False