

Know Your Job Quiz

- 1. OSHA requires employers and employees to follow its rules and regulations.
 - a. True b. False

- 2. One way to learn to operate your equipment properly and safely is to read:
 - a. Its material safety data sheet
 - b. The manufacturer's instructions
 - c. OSHA's General Duty Clause

- 3. Safe and proper equipment operation generally includes:
 - a. Inspection and maintenance
 - b. Warming it up
 - c. Knowing how to contact emergency spill crews

- 4. It's more important to know the end result of a job than the steps you take to get there.
 - a. True b. False

- 5. To do a job safely, you have to know:
 - a. Who did it before
 - b. How long it should take
 - c. What could go wrong

- 6. If you work with chemicals, you should know their:
 - a. Physical and health hazards
 - b. Manufacturers
 - c. Weight

- 7. To identify hazards you might face on the job, you might look at:
 - a. Who you're working with
 - b. What's lying or spilled on the floor
 - c. Where materials were shipped from

- 8. You should know your job could become hazardous if you:
 - a. Turned on a tool and it started to smoke
 - b. Found an electrical cord with good insulation
 - c. Saw that a machine had been locked out for repair

- 9. If something on the job just doesn't seem right, you should:
 - a. Assume that someone else would know if it were dangerous
 - b. Report it to your supervisor
 - c. Ignore it

- 10. Asking questions about particular parts of your job shows you:
 - a. Know the importance of really understanding all processes, procedures, etc.
 - b. Don't know enough to be trusted to continue in your job
 - c. Are willing to make a fool of yourself