

Petition for Presidential Out-of-State Tuition Waiver Intercollegiate Athletic Waiver

In accordance with BOR Policy 7.3.4.1, Middle Georgia State University awards a limited number of Out-of-State Tuition Waivers annually. Initial awarding of waivers is done on a first come, first serve basis and applicants are not guaranteed a waiver after the allowable amount of waivers have been issued. Effective Fall 2016, to be considered for a Presidential waiver, new applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. Intercollegiate Athletic Waiver

- Athletes must be academically eligible and admitted to MGA.
- Athletes must be NAIA eligible.

Presidential waivers are granted for one academic year only (fall semester through summer semester).

Continuing students who received a Presidential Waiver are eligible to continue to receive the waiver as long as they remain continuously enrolled, maintain NAIA eligibility, and maintain satisfactory academic progress (SAP).
